6.1 G Hughes cut public paths (see 5.1)

6.2 Cynefin (information only - grants)

6.3 Holyhead & Anglesey Mail - e-mail was read from the Mail saying

"Unfortunately because space tends to be limited, we have started a new policy of keeping reports to approximately 100 words or less. (The one exception being Funerals). Council reports tend by nature to be fairly long, so it is likely that the way forward is to provide some few details such as date and place of the meeting, and publication on a website so that those with true interest can read the full reports

7 MONEY MATTERS

7.1 It was agreed to pay the following: Wreath (Remembrance Day) £ 20.00, G
Hughes £ 290.00 (cutting the cemeteries), Hacker Young £ 240

8 OTHER ISSUES

8.1 Rally - The members of the Council are disappointed that residents did not received notice prior to the recent car rally. The Clerk was asked to contact the organizers of the rally to find out if advance notice is usually issued

8.2 The Police - The Clerk was asked to contact the Police to offer an invitation to the PCSO's to attend council monthly meetings
